The Lord is the Host of a Feast of rich food, a Feast of well-aged wine (Isaiah 25:6); a Table prepared before us in the presence of our enemies (Psalm 23:5); a King Who gave a wedding feast (Matthew 22:2). Our God is the most gracious of hosts as He cares for us with His Own Body and Blood at His Table as a foretaste of the Feast to come! The Holy Spirit has invited us to this Feast and we have come! At this Banquet we will find everything needed for a life filled with grace, mercy, and peace. Let us encourage one another in our common fellowship and faith. Let us be mindful that at the center of our gathering is the Master Who brings peace and fills us with life, love, and forgiveness. Let us rejoice in the Lord, always!

Pastor's Corner, Week of October 11-17, 2020

Dear Resurrection friends and brothers and sisters in Christ,

"And the peace of God that passes all power of thought will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

Have you ever experienced "the spiral"? It's that feeling you get when you wake up in the night and, half-awake, your brain goes around and around trying to solve some impossible problem. The spiral produces the illusion that you're actually getting somewhere...that expending mental energy will help. You THINK that by tackling the problem in your mind you will conquer the issue, whatever it is. But like the course marked out by any spiral, you are only going around in circles. Something else is needed. Something your mind cannot attain by itself. That "something" is true peace. "Peace that passes all human understanding." Peace that is ours in Christ Jesus. Peace that is ours when we voice aloud our prayers and petitions (with thanksgiving!) to the One who receives our prayers and gives us what we truly need for today and every day.

This Sunday we will join in on receiving that peace together again as we also welcome several new families to Resurrection! Either sign up to worship in person (at: <http://www.rlcary.org/about-us/in-person-worship/>) or join us online (<http://www.rlcary.org/about-us/online-worship/>). Holy Communion will be celebrated Saturday evening at 6 PM and this Sunday morning at 10:45 AM. The Sunday morning 8 AM live stream will stay up on our YouTube channel. If you plan to attend services in person, please use the appropriate sign up genius at the link above or be prepared to sign in upon arriving at the sanctuary entrance. This allows us to prepare for those attending and to do contact tracing, in the unlikely event that it should become necessary. Like last month, Holy Communion in October will be available...

Every Saturday night at 6 PM;

Every first and third Sunday at 8 AM;

Every second, fourth, and fifth Sunday at 10:45 AM.

You have all already seen and had the chance to download the app for RightNow Media. Last week I promised I'd have some more apps to recommend for your device that would facilitate your time in God's Word. Here are a few that I use and have on my phone (to find and download, search within the App Store, Google Play, or Kindle Fire):

- Portals of Prayer (LCMS-produced daily devotions with morning and evening prayers)
- YouVersion (Bible app with Bible in many languages and versions, for you to read or listen to)
- Daily Devotions by Lutheran Hour Ministries (daily devotions produced by auxiliary organization of the LCMS)
- Project Connect Booklets by Lutheran Hour Ministries (LHM podcasts)
- OurDailyBread (non-denominational daily devotions to either read or listen to)
- Dwell (Bible app with Bible verses for you to read or listen to; can also be set to music)
- Luther's Small Catechism (expandable to 2017 edition)
- Logos Bible Study Tools (expandable to full library of Bible study resources)

Whether you use this technology or make a habit of staying in the Word with standard print media, may the PEACE of the Lord in Christ Jesus be with you always....

Shalom in Jesus,

Pastor Jonathan

New Christian Education Class

Pastor Jonathan is offering a six-week introduction/review of the main doctrines of the Christian faith, starting on Wednesday, October 7 at 7:00 pm, entitled "This Is the Church." (Note: No class held on Wednesday, October 14.)

The focus of the class will be on the core doctrines of the Christian faith (including the Ten Commandments, Apostles' Creed, Lord's Prayer, Holy Baptism, Confession, and the Lord's Supper), understanding how/why they occur in our worship life and what makes Christianity different from all other world religions.

Textbooks will be the Bible and Luther's Small Catechism.
Be prepared for a class that will last up to 90 minutes and will be accessible via Zoom.

Both newcomers and veterans of the faith are welcome to take part!

To sign up, contact Pastor Jonathan at jonathan.blanke@rlcary.org.

During our worship services last weekend, we highlighted a couple service opportunities that are still available, even during this time of COVID.

With Love From Jesus

From Brenda Peterson, "Pastor Jonathan asked me to share about a service opportunity that is close to my heart. I will tell you briefly about With Love from Jesus. It began in two garages in 2000 and became a non-profit in 2001, all the while being directed by God. Through God's plan for it. God always makes it work, as the executive director Linda Williams says, 'It's God's ministry and God's results - she is called to be faithful, obedient, and to honor Jesus.' The ministry is in 2 locations - one in Southern Raleigh/North Garner and the other in Johnston County. The Gospel is delivered and needs are met (food, clothing, housewares, etc.) and prayers are said for the honored guests. There are no prerequisites for guests and guests can "shop" for free. Jesus is the provider therefore the name, With Love from Jesus. "Please accept this food with Love from Jesus." Prayers for needs with God given the glory! Guests can shop once a week. Partner churches near where the guests live are asked to disciple guests when unmet needs arise. Volunteers are needed Monday-Saturday. It has been a blessing and a joy for me to serve on Wednesdays. I pray that I will learn to share the Gospel and love on all the guests. Christian unity is on display and also important here. As Hebrews 13:2 says: do not forget to entertain strangers, for by so doing some people have entertained angels without knowing it. God welcomed us all into HIS family. We are called to reflect God's love to a hurting world. Please reach out to me if you have any questions and would like to help out in any way in this particular Kingdom work. For more information, www.withlovefromjesus.org.

Habitat for Humanity, Lutheran Coalition

The Lutheran Coalition brings Lutheran churches together to strengthen relationships while serving families in need of affordable housing. The upcoming Lutheran Build is a special partnership with The Serving Cup and Lutheran Services Carolinas to build homes for adults with developmental disabilities called Building Independence 2021. For more information, www.habitatwake.org/faith/lutheran.

Resurrection Service Project

Assists the elderly, infirmed, those in financial difficulty, and others in our community with home maintenance and repairs. Contact Tim Hiteshew through RCB with requests or to join the RSP team.

To learn more about service opportunities here at RLC and in the community, browse the Connect and Serve webpage on our website at rlcary.org/connect-serve.

Questions? Contact Jenny.Piontek@rlcary.org.

The Monday Night Women's Bible Study

will begin a new study on October 19, Enough for Now by author Sharla Fritz.

If you did not pre-order the book, you can order now through Amazon, ChristianBook.com, Concordia Publishing House cph.org.

You can contact Sharon Hahne or Jamee Thieme through RCB, if you want to be added to the group.

The concept of 'having enough' is one that is not often experienced. If I only had more money ... more success ... more time ... then I would be fulfilled. Yet, even when more is attained, it rarely satisfies. It is not 'enough.'

This eight-lesson women's Bible study, Enough for Now, explores the idea of 'enough' through the study of Scripture - specifically the parable of the rich fool, personal stories, and practical exercises. Over the course of the eight lessons, women will discover how to escape the insatiable quest for more by finding their 'enough' in God.

What feels shaky in your world? Maybe you feel hurt by the past, disappointed by the present, or worried about the future.

If so, there is hope. For every problem in life, God has given you a promise.

Join the Adult Christian Education Class on Sunday mornings via Zoom
as we study Max Lucado's *Unshakable Hope:
Building Our Lives on the Promises of God*, started September 20 at 9:30 am.

The class will be team led and Zoom invitations will be sent through your RCB email after registration.

In Unshakable Hope, Max Lucado unpacks 12 of the Bible's most significant promises, equipping you to overcome difficult circumstances by keeping your focus on the hope found in the promises of Scripture.

Now more than ever, we need the definitive declarations of our mighty and loving God. In this book, you will be reminded that God's promises are irrevocable because:

- ◇ God is unchanging
- ◇ God is faithful
- ◇ God is strong
- ◇ God cannot lie

What is your life built on—the circumstances of life or the promises of God? The answer to that question changes everything. Join the Sunday morning study with Max as he takes a closer look at Scripture's unbreakable promises and shows you how to live with unshakable hope.

To register, contact the church office at office@rlcary.org or 919-851-7248.

You can watch the video at home anytime and learn all about how God always loves us. (Wow, God!)
