Today we celebrate the Festival of All Saints and the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed. This is a celebration and remembrance of the people of God who have gone before us: fighting the good fight of faith, running the race, and finishing the course; and who now rest from their labors. We remember that we are joining in the song that is already being sung eternally in the presence of God. In the midst of this dying, fallen world we sing... and the Song is 'Victory' - His Victory made ours in Christ.

Pastor's Corner, Week of November 1-7, 2020

Dear Resurrection saints,

Did you know that you are a saint? Saints aren't just the guys (and gals) in the pictures with the haloes. Saints are ordinary people that God uses for extraordinary ends. People like you and me.

I had a few saint sightings this past week. Maybe you did too. It started last weekend, with a group of folks who came together on a beautiful Saturday morning to work at making the surroundings of the church more beautiful... planting plants, trimming trees, putting in grass, and otherwise lifting the spirits of those who come and go from our church building! Then on Sunday I met a dozen or so RLC youth who came together to make a rainy afternoon a little brighter for kids taking part in our church's "Holy-ween Storytime." They dedicated several hours of their afternoon to make the event happen. There were volunteers coming and going and appearing all week long... folks that help with Confirmation homework, count and record offerings, appear on Zoom calls to share insights. I wish you could see all the saints that I see. Every week! And this weekend we are able to give thanks to God for the saints who touched our lives in especially important ways as we name aloud RLC members called home to heaven recently and share pictures of the saints we will always hold in our hearts. They are God's gift to us.

Join us by either signing up to worship in person at this link or clicking here to retrieve your electronic bulletin and worship online. Once again, we welcome congregational singing this weekend in all services. Holy Communion will be celebrated Saturday evening (in-person only) and again on Sunday morning at 8 AM for our in-person live stream. This week the 10:45 praise and worship service will stay up on our YouTube channel. And please don't forget: we continue our "small group" Holy Communion gatherings after regular services in the main sanctuary at 1 PM (sign up here). As always, if you plan to attend in person, please use the appropriate sign up genius above or be prepared to sign in upon arriving at the sanctuary entrance. This allows us to prepare for those attending and do contact tracing, in the unlikely event that it should become necessary.

In place of our adult Sunday School class at 9:30 AM this Sunday we will be treated to an update about the important work going on in Uganda from the Uganda Mission team via Zoom. Topics will include: Covid-19 Impacts in Uganda, Remote Learning in the Villages, Seminary Education in Uganda, and other information. If you're already signed up for "Unshakable Hope" please tune in!

Finally, two weekends from now (November 7-8) will be Stewardship Weekend at RLC. Ours is a generous congregation. The saints of God here give cheerfully of their time and talent! We therefore hope that everyone attending worship either remotely or in person will take a little time to consider now what they have been gifted by God to dedicate to the service of others (RLC and other non-profits) in 2021. Hard copies of pledge cards will be made available for those who are with us in person this week, to be submitted the following week. Pledges may be directly submitted anonymously to us via our website. Our goal is not to leverage our system of giving to increase offering income. It is, rather, that each of us might give thanks to God for His faithfulness this year and consider what portion of the gifts we have received we choose to dedicate for others next year. That decision is between us and God.

Maybe like me you had a saint sighting this past week. Or maybe, like me, you're giving thanks to God this weekend for a saint already called home to heaven. There's still another way that All Saints Sunday hits home: you and I are saints too! From one forgiven sinner to another: let's live the life of the people God has declared us to be. Encouraged by the Spirit of the holy Son of God, our Savior Jesus Christ, we, together with all the saints, praise our God's holy Name.

Shalom in Jesus,
Pastor Jonathan

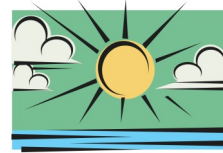

A TABLE OF REMEMBRANCE is set up in the Narthex and the Family Life Center where you can place a picture and/or note of your loved one. You may come bring it with you to worship on Saturday or Sunday.

Remembrances can be of any lost loved one, not just from this past year.

COMMEMORATION
FAITHFUL DEPARTED

The Commemoration of the Faithful Departed

The church, since the 8th century AD, has set aside a day to remember the lives of the saints. Saints are all of us ordinary people who have been set apart for a special purpose.

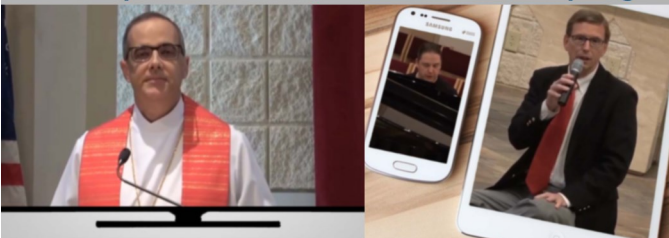

Today we not only remember those people whose lives have touched us so dearly in the past, but as a community of faith we commit ourselves to support each other in grief. On this Sunday in November, we pray for all who in the past year have grieved the loss of beloved family members.

In going over the announcement sheets for this year, we have especially prayed that God's comfort be with these members as they mourn the death of family:

Jack Arsenault, brother-in-law of Ed and Anne Altieri; James, uncle of Tina Ashworth; Donald Baker, father of Lisa Snyder; Paula Boehm; Emil Breckling, father of Elke Cerny; Charles Brehmer, father of Juli Blanke; Louise Brummeyer, mother of Terry Brummeyer; Mabel Bunting, mother of Marybeth Childers; Lou Caltrider, husband of Elaine; Natalie Giles Cole, granddaughter of John Healey; Alan Eckard; Sister of Don Frank; Lamar Garab, uncle of Mark Snyder; Dr. James R. Garstick, uncle of Carol Baxter; Bill Johnson, father of Jenn Kirby; Mike Kenny, relative of Lena Licciardi; Eunice Kolb, mother of Tom Kolb; Marvin Kopetski, brother of Peter Bashaw; Vivian Leister, aunt of Keith Leister; Retired Air Force Lt. Col. John C. Lindsey, father of Leslie Hiteshow, Hui Yong Moon, mother and grandmother of Bill, Tanya, William, Ethan and Olivia Douglas; Jackie Morgan, sister-in-law of Sue Campau; Leonard Mundorf, husband of Susanne; Jackie Paasch, mother of Deb Gebbia; Nancy Riefenhauser; Fuad Rihani, husband of Kathy; Joanne Schmitt; KayAnn Sommers, sister-in-law of Eve Sommers; Gretchen, cousin of Sonstroem family; Dick Sutton, stepfather of Gina Casselberry; James Thomas, father of Tommy Thomas; Ida Vanderzanden, grandmother of Tim and Amanda Farmer; Phyllis Wambaugh, aunt of Linda Merrill; Debbie Wasilak, wife of John; Bruce Witcher, father of Michael Witcher; Ann Wilcox, mother of Ellen Richter; Bob Youhas, husband of Kathi.

Would you like to help provide presents for children in need this Christmas?

The Christmas Store provides financially-challenged parents with an appointment to choose free toys for their children, age 14 and under. Families living in Apex, Holly Springs, Willow Spring, Cary, Fuquay-Varina, Morrisville, or New Hill are referred by local aid organizations or school counselors.

We are looking forward to partnering with the Christmas Store again this year from November 8-29!

Unfortunately here at Resurrection, we will not have our Christmas trees full of tags up this year and will be limiting collection days to Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 9:00 am-3:00 pm through the church office. You may also bring your items to worship if you are coming in person.

This year due to the pandemic, the best way to help stock the Christmas Store is by purchasing toys online at your favorite retailer and having them delivered directly to New Horizons Fellowship at 820 E. Williams St., Apex NC 27502.

For gift ideas or a direct link to shopping online through Amazon, check out the Christmas Store's Amazon page using this QR Code.

All toy donations are due by Sunday, November 29.

The Monday Night Women's Bible Study began a new study on October 19, Enough for Now by author Sharla Fritz.

If you did not pre-order the book, you can order now through Amazon, ChristianBook.com, Concordia Publishing House cph.org.

You can contact Sharon Hahne or Jamee Thieme through RCB, if you want to be added to the group.

The concept of 'having enough' is one that is not often experienced. If I only had more money ... more success ... more time ... then I would be fulfilled. Yet, even when more is attained, it rarely satisfies. It is not 'enough.'

This eight-lesson women's Bible study, Enough for Now, explores the idea of 'enough' through the study of Scripture - specifically the parable of the rich fool, personal stories, and practical exercises. Over the course of the eight lessons, women will discover how to escape the insatiable quest for more by finding their 'enough' in God.

We are grateful for all who are able to maintain financial contributions to our congregation!

There are four ways to make your offering:

- Place in offering plate as you exit the in-person worship service
- Mail to Resurrection Lutheran Church, 100 Lochmere Drive West, Cary, NC 27518
- Online Giving through our church website at www.rlcary.org/ministries/online-giving
- Download the "GivePlus+" APP, search for Resurrection Lutheran Church, transfer funds from your checking or savings account to RLC.
