The Sundays of Easter celebrate the greatest of all victories - the defeat of sin, death, and the devil by Jesus Christ, the Son of God. The theme of victory fills each of the Sundays of Easter and radiates out the joy of the first Easter morning. The Hymn of Praise begins with the words, "This is the feast of victory for our God." This joyful truth is to be re-echoed through all of the worship of God's people on earth as it is endlessly proclaimed by the hosts of Heaven!

Pastor's Corner for Week of April 18-24

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The photo you see above popped up in a free license database I use and depicts the word "disappointment." As you can see, it shows a man looking down and with regret, while a chalkboard drawing behind him depicts the muscles and inner strength he feels he needs. To me, that is the perfect prelude for this Third Sunday of Easter. Last week we focused on God's free invitation to confess our sins and receive forgiveness. But that raises the question: if I'm a sinner--even a forgiven one--what is God able to do with me for good? How can God use someone like me to make the world a better place...especially when I fall down in life time and time again? The answer? We find it in the first letter of John this week: The crucified yet risen Son of God Jesus Christ brings us everlasting hope. We have been called (and we are) the very children of the God of the universe! And so the Christian faith journey is not an ongoing slog with a constant focus backward: on our sins, our failures, where life has gone wrong. The risen Christ in us will help us see our sins so that we can know the peace that comes from God's forgiveness. But the Christian journey is, in the end, an adventure lived in expectation of what God is doing...a focus FORWARD on what is around the bend: new fruits of repentance, new opportunities to love those that are placed in our path, a new day and chance to write on a clean slate. All of which will one day end in a new homecoming that will feel like the ONLY homecoming we've ever known: our homecoming with our heavenly Father and loving Savior Jesus!

Here is the latest I have to share this week:

- RLC Music and Worship Director Bob Unger would like to announce that he has received a Divine Call to serve as Teacher and Minister of Music at Pilgrim Lutheran Church in Green Bay, Wisconsin. To view his letter announcing this news, click here. We celebrate the Unger family's ministry among us as we keep them in our prayers; we ask that God would lead them to discern His will for them at this important time.
- Resurrection Lutheran Church is resuming pre-COVID office hours. Feel free to stop by the church during regular hours (9 AM to 3 PM) at any time, Monday through Friday.
- Sign up here for worship services this Saturday and Sunday, April 10-11. Holy Communion will be offered at 6 PM Saturday evening; we look forward to hearing Aidan Leahy's Faith Statement in this service! Then, we will host two services on Sunday morning at 8 and 11 AM, with Holy Communion offered in the 8 AM service. In-person worshippers are limited to 75 persons per service. Smaller services of Holy Communion for groups of 10 or fewer will continue to be offered throughout April on Sundays at 12:30 PM.
- This weekend (April 18) our spring Bible class begins, facilitated by me. It is entitled "Race and the Gospel." You can preview the class by clicking here. Study guides in digital format are available at no cost through your RightNow Media account (search inside the platform for "Race and the Gospel") and are also printed out for you to pick up any time at church. To register for the class, send an email with your name to office@rlcary.org.

- There are just two more weeks left in our "Count Me In" pledge drive. I'm so grateful for so many who have already stepped up to be counted! By now you have probably seen my invitation to first-time pledgers to consider a pledge to Resurrection Lutheran Church for fiscal year 2021-2022. I'm asking for just 15 more pledges to make our goal of 50. If you didn't submit a pledge last fall and have not yet done so this year, now is the time! This week my stewardship focus is on how administering God's good gifts means giving proportionately. In other words: don't worry about the AMOUNT of your pledge. Just focus on MAKING a pledge...any pledge...especially if you have never done so before. God loves a cheerful giver (2 Cor. 9:7), so let your heart lead you in determining what you have been gifted to give to others. To make an intentional commitment of firstfruits appropriate for how you have been gifted by God to give to others, submit your pledge form online by clicking here.
- Save the date: April 28. This is the day for Assignments of Calls to candidates for the pastoral office at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. Make plans now to watch the live stream of the Call Service that day to see the outcome of our call extended to three potential candidates in the seminary's class of 2021. To find out more, access the web site for Call Day by clicking here.
- I know we just took in new members last Sunday. But God has gifted us with more people from our community that want to discover what RLC is all about. New "Welcome to Resurrection" classes will be held via Zoom starting May 8 at 9 AM. If you know anyone who might be interested in finding out more about our faith community, please let us know (or have them contact the church office).

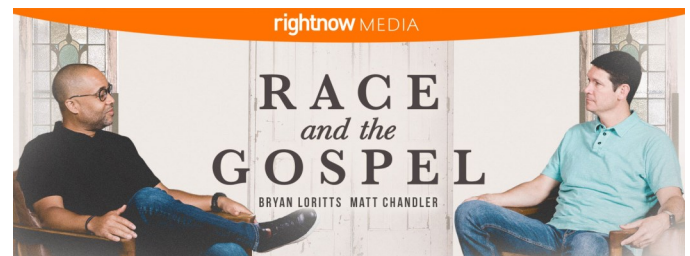

What can God do with you and me? Our Father in heaven is the Creator of the universe! He has the power even to raise the dead! Now, in Holy Baptism He has claimed you and me as His own dear children. Easter means we have a new opportunity to live life tomorrow. With those "muscles of hope," at work in us, we seek God's leading and God's ongoing empowering.

Christ is risen!

rlcary.org/about-us/online-worship.

Join us for a Bible class on various passages of Scripture, though centered on St. Paul's letter to Ephesians, entitled "Race and the Gospel." Pastor Jonathan will facilitate a 5-week study, Sundays at 9:30 am beginning April 18, on the topics of reconciliation in Christ, racial justice and the church, etc. as St. Paul and other New Testament authors touch on these topics, enabling us to apply the insights of Scripture to our circumstances today.

You can find the study guide for the class inside your RightNow Media platform, on the Christian Education webpage, or in the church office.

COUNT ME IN!

REACH OUR GOAL OF 50 PLEDGES

2021 is shaping up to be a busy year at Resurrection. We foresee opening our church campus to a new worship and small group schedule this fall. We look forward to engaging more intentionally with our local neighborhoods in person. And, following our most recent church meeting, we have submitted call documents for one of three candidates soon-to-graduate Concordia Seminary, St. Louis as our new Associate Pastor! All of it, of course, is not possible without the prayer, love, and support of all of you.

All Resurrection members are invited to stand up and be counted. Last year our Stewardship Pledge Drive resulted in 75 of the roughly 400 households of our congregation pledging to support the mission and ministry at RLC with a portion of their income. If you or your family were one of those 75 households, thank you. You are all set! But there are at least 300 households who were not able to join us in this challenge last year. We have set a goal of adding 50 NEW pledges--people who have never made a pledge to RLC--to the 75 or so gathered last November. The pledge will be for monies spent in the period beginning July 2021 (fiscal 2022). Asking 50 out of 300 family units to stand up and be counted is a modest goal. We can do this!

If you did not take part in the November 2020 pledge event, we invite you to fill out and return the pledge card or submit the pledge form online at rlcary.org/ministries/count-me-in.

Looking forward--together with you--to seeing our member involvement grow in this new season of RLC's life together!

Mark Otten is leading the study, Standing Tall - Developing a Leader's Heart Through the Book of Nehemiah, currently on RightNow Media.

The book of Nehemiah is one of the greatest sources for leadership development that has ever been written. This series helps us discover from Nehemiah himself, the heart and means of leading others to accomplish the impossible.

If you would like to be added to the group, please contact Mark Otten or Tom Gebbia through RCB. You can also email mens-ministry@rlcary.org.

Are you someone who wants to learn more from the Bible? Has it ever “dawned on you” that nothing has ever dawned on God? He knew before the world began that His people would face hardship, so He gave us His Word. Book of Ephesians is a survival manual - it equips believers to thrive in a world that hates the message of Jesus Christ. Paul the Apostle writes to encourage believers to live well - we've been lifted from the graveyard of sin and called to shout the gospel into the darkened world.

Join us on Wednesdays, 7:30-8:30 pm February 24-April 28 via Zoom!

Class is led by Mindy Stephani. Register with church office.

Women's Bible Study — March 8-May 24, 2021

The Monday Night Women's Bible Study began a new study on Monday, March 8 at 7:00 pm via Zoom.

Love Rules tells the story of spiritual transformation, shows how God wants us to love better, and helps us see how we can. This Bible study addresses one commandment each week, then follows up with four devotions that approach the topic from different angles. The readings take a what does this mean approach by asking open-ended questions and providing related Bible readings.

Study guides are available through Concordia Publishing House, Amazon, or ChristianBook.com.

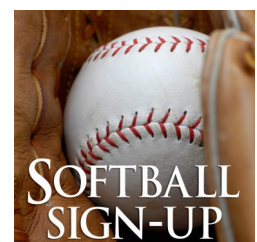

If you would like to be added to the group, please contact Sharon Hahne or Jamee Thieme through RCB.

Attention Men: Time to grab your glove and cleats and join your fellow church members in representing RLC in the Town of Cary's Church League.
