God's people are cared for by the Good Shepherd Himself, Who laid down His Life for the sheep. He now guides us through His Word and Sacraments. He anoints us with His Spirit so that we may pass through this trouble-filled life safely; and at last come to the house of the Lord, where we will dwell in peace forever. We listen to the Shepherd's voice; so that He might keep us on paths of righteousness for His name's sake. We have a calling to proclaim this Good Shepherd to those around us so that they may know His love, care, mercy, and peace.

For Protection, Wisdom, and Discernment

- Family transitions, those selling homes and searching for new homes
- Those searching for jobs and new job paths, especially *Kopola family, Trevor, Peter, *Sue, *Tom
- Humanitarian Crisis at Southern Border

- Shaun and Krista Trump, Kenya
- JP and Aimee Cima, Cambodia

Lord Jesus, thank You for Your abiding Presence and saving grace. All is in Your Hands. We trust You are working all things according to Your good plan and purposes, and with that trust and confidence, we release these prayers to You. In Your Holy Name, Amen.

Pastor's Corner for Week of April 25-May 1

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

It's all about love. Can things really be that easy? Well...yes and no. It IS really all about love, love that doesn't originate with you and me at all, as our text for this weekend (1 John 3:16-24) makes clear: "We know love by this, that [Christ] laid down His life for us." But Christ Jesus' love can't help but have its way with you and me...so much so that "We ought to lay down our lives for one another"(3:16). That is where love (humanly speaking) gets hard! It is all so easy to write about in a letter like this or say in a sermon...yet so difficult to put into practice! This past week, the trial of Derek Chauvin focused our attention on the death of George Floyd. Joshua Salzberg, co-founder of LCMS organization called "Lutherans for Racial Justice," reminds us: Derek Chauvin is not our only focus as we gather to seek the mercy of the One who dyecast what real love looks like. THAT story concerns each of us: You and me: "I was not willing to lay down my life for George Floyd or Breonna Taylor," Salzberg writes. "Most days, I'm not willing to lay down my coffee for a friend, let alone lay down my iPhone or my job or my life ambitions. No, most days when faced with the needs of my neighbor, I'm less likely to respond with Godly compassion and more likely to respond with the words of Cain: 'Am I my brother's keeper?'" The original love that is defining for all of us today is not your love or mine--and thank God for that! It is the love of our Good Shepherd Jesus, who laid down His life for His sheep (John 10:11). Now, that Good Shepherd who carries us through life--with its green pastures, still waters, and valley of death--also "leads us into paths of righteousness, for His name's sake" (Psalm 23:3). Wherever and however our life vocations invite us to follow in the footsteps of the Good Shepherd this week, we pray with Luther, that "the Old Adam in us might, by daily contrition and repentance, be drowned and die with all sins and evil desires, and that a new man should daily emerge and arise to live before God in righteousness and purity forever." God's love for sinners like you and me (and through us, for the world!) is what it's really all about.

Here is the news I have to pass on this week:

- Plans are underway for transitioning some worship elements (e.g., distribution of the Lord's Supper) to practices that more closely resemble what was going on at RLC before the pandemic started. A little over one year ago, we halted in-person worship services all together. One year ago, we offered in-person Holy Communion to groups of 10 or fewer and started meeting in-person in the church parking lot. Then, 8 months ago, we resumed in-person services in the main sanctuary and Family Life Center with a prescribed practice of Holy Communion that minimized interactions between us and contact with surfaces. CDC guidance has been relaxed somewhat in the last few weeks, and though we still strive to maintain a wholesome environment in our worship spaces, I believe it is time to revisit and restore some of the traditions and practices surrounding the celebration of the Lord's Supper that we know and love. Please be on the look out for information in this space that will detail our plans for the celebration of the Sacrament in the weeks to come!
- Sign up here for worship services this Saturday and Sunday, April 24 and 25. Holy Communion will be offered at 6 PM Saturday evening. Then, we will host two services on Sunday morning at 8 and 11 AM, with Holy Communion offered in the 11 AM service. In-person worshippers are limited to 75 persons per service. Smaller services of Holy Communion for groups of 10 or fewer will continue to be offered throughout most Sundays in May at 12:30 PM. (Please note that, due to a private baptism at 12:30 small-group Holy Communion on May 2 will not be available.)

- There is just one week left in our "Count Me In" pledge drive. We still have space for roughly 10 first-time pledges. If you didn't submit a pledge last fall and have not yet done so this year, this is the week. This week my stewardship focus is on the sacrificial aspect of giving. Whether it is our time, our talent/interests, or our treasure, we are called to respond to God's gift of life in a concrete way. Is such a sacrifice "necessary" for our salvation? No! Is it an appropriate response to what God has done for us through Christ Jesus? You bet! (See what St. Paul has to say on the topic: Romans 12:1). What a blessing it is to be not only church "consumers" but active participants in the family of God. To make a first-time pledge, submit your pledge form online by clicking here. Thank you, thank you, thank you for all who have given so generously on behalf of our congregation's kingdom work. We can't do what we do without you!
- Save the date: April 28. This is the day for Assignments of Calls to candidates for the pastoral office at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. Make plans now to watch the live stream of the Call Service that day to see the outcome of our call extended to three potential candidates in the seminary's class of 2021. To find out more, access the website for Call Day by clicking here. Church members are invited to meet and greet the new Associate Pastor -Elect in a Zoom call beginning at 9 PM that evening. To join via Zoom at 9 PM on 4/28, click this link.
- New "Welcome to Resurrection" classes will be held via Zoom starting May 8 at 9 AM. If you know anyone who might be interested in finding out more about our faith community, please let us know (or have them contact the church office) at office@rlcary.org.
- A Celebration of Life in Christ for Barbara Schaeffer and rite of committal in the RLC columbarium will be held at Resurrection on May 8 at 3 PM for immediate family only. Though the services are limited to Barbara's immediate family, I invite you to view her obituary here and to keep the family in your prayers.

May the truly Good Shepherd uphold us as we strive together to follow in His footsteps again this week!

Men's Biscuit and Beverage Outdoor Breakfast Saturday, April 24

Bring a camp chair and mask as we gather for a men's outdoor biscuit and beverage breakfast. We will say grace and eat at 8:00 am, Pastor Jonathan will lead us in message starting around 8:30 am.

There will be a variety of biscuits with coffee, water, and juice available.

We will meet at the fire pit in the 3rd row of the RLC parking lot.

Contact: Tom Gebbia (mens-ministry@rlcary.org)

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Join us for a Bible class on various passages of Scripture, though centered on St. Paul's letter to Ephesians, entitled "Race and the Gospel." Pastor Jonathan will facilitate a 5-week study, Sundays at 9:30 am beginning April 18, on the topics of reconciliation in Christ, racial justice and the church, etc. as St. Paul and other New Testament authors touch on these topics, enabling us to apply the insights of Scripture to our circumstances today.

You can find the study guide for the class inside your RightNow Media platform, on the Christian Education webpage, or in the church office.

Won't you join us? Sign up indicating your interest by sending an email to office@rlcary.org.

Concordia Seminary (St. Louis) recognizes and celebrates calls throughout the year although the campus' primary Call Day celebration typically is held in April. On Call Day, concluding students receive their first calls to ministry and second-year students receive their assignments for vicarages and deaconess internships. All calls and assignments for service are to churches or ministries within The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS).

Call Day is April 28, 2021. Assignments and calls will be announced and celebrated during two worship services on Call Day in the Chapel of St. Timothy and St. Titus.

RLC has extended a call to three potential candidates in the Seminary's class of 2021 for the Associate Pastor position. Watch the live stream service to see the outcome of our call!

View the live stream of the Call Service at 7:00 pm CDT (8:00 pm EST) on their Vimeo channel at vimeo.com/536968608.

If interested, you may watch both services, Vicarage and Call, starting at 3:00 pm CDT (4:00 pm EST) at csl.edu/academics/call-day-services.

Women's Ministries of RLC is inviting all women who would like to join us in planning activities and events for the women of RLC now that we can begin being more active again. We are also hoping to restructure Women's Ministries and are seeking interested women to help with this process.

Please call Cynthia Wyse at 919-244-9639 on weekends or after 7:00 pm on weekdays, if interested in hearing more information.

Men's Ministry

for Fellowship and Study!

Mark Otten is leading the study, Standing Tall - Developing a Leader's Heart Through the Book of Nehemiah, currently on RightNow Media.

The book of Nehemiah is one of the greatest sources for leadership development that has ever been written. This series helps us discover from Nehemiah himself, the heart and means of leading others to accomplish the impossible.

If you would like to be added to the group, please contact Mark Otten or Tom Gebbia through RCB. You can also email mens-ministry@rlcary.org.

Women's Bible Study — March 8-May 24, 2021

The Monday Night Women's Bible Study began a new study on Monday, March 8 at 7:00 pm via Zoom.

Love Rules tells the story of spiritual transformation, shows how God wants us to love better, and helps us see how we can. This Bible study addresses one commandment each week, then follows up with four devotions that approach the topic from different angles. The readings take a what does this mean approach by asking open-ended questions and providing related Bible readings.

Study guides are available through Concordia Publishing House, Amazon, or ChristianBook.com.

If you would like to be added to the group, please contact Sharon Hahne or Jamee Thieme through RCB.

COUNT ME IN!

REACH OUR GOAL OF 50 PLEDGES

2021 is shaping up to be a busy year at Resurrection. We foresee opening our church campus to a new worship and small group schedule this fall. We look forward to engaging more intentionally with our local neighborhoods in person. And, following our most recent church meeting, we have submitted call documents for one of three candidates soon-to-graduate Concordia Seminary, St. Louis as our new Associate Pastor! All of it, of course, is not possible without the prayer, love, and support of all of you.

All Resurrection members are invited to stand up and be counted. Last year our Stewardship Pledge Drive resulted in 75 of the roughly 400 households of our congregation pledging to support the mission and ministry at RLC with a portion of their income. If you or your family were one of those 75 households, thank you. You are all set! But there are at least 300 households who were not able to join us in this challenge last year. We have set a goal of adding 50 NEW pledges--people who have never made a pledge to RLC--to the 75 or so gathered last November. The pledge will be for monies spent in the period beginning July 2021 (fiscal 2022). Asking 50 out of 300 family units to stand up and be counted is a modest goal. We can do this!

If you did not take part in the November 2020 pledge event, we invite you to fill out and return the pledge card or submit the pledge form online at rlcary.org/ministries/count-me-in.

Looking forward--together with you--to seeing our member involvement grow in this new season of RLC's life together!

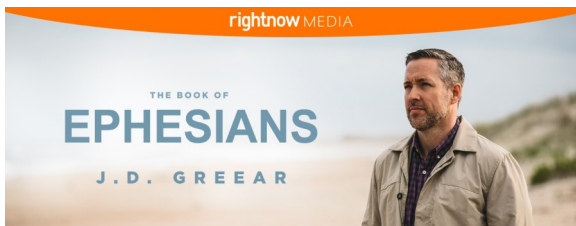

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Are you someone who wants to learn more from the Bible? Has it ever “dawned on you” that nothing has ever dawned on God? He knew before the world began that His people would face hardship, so He gave us His Word. Book of Ephesians is a survival manual - it equips believers to thrive in a world that hates the message of Jesus Christ. Paul the Apostle writes to encourage believers to live well - we've been lifted from the graveyard of sin and called to shout the gospel into the darkened world.

Join us on Wednesdays, 7:30-8:30 pm
February 24-April 28 via Zoom!

Class is led by Mindy Stephani. Register with church office.

Attention Men: Time to grab your glove and cleats and join your fellow church members in representing RLC in the Town of Cary's Church League.

Games will be played Tuesday and Thursday nights May-July.

If you are interested in joining us for some exercise, fun, and fellowship, please see Adam Brake or send an email to mens-softball@rlcary.org.

Practices will start the first week of May. All sign-ups must be made by May 9th. COVID-19 safety measures will be in place and can be found at <https://www.townofcary.org/recreation-enjoyment/sports/adult-sports/adult-softball>.

We are grateful for all who are able to maintain financial contributions to our congregation!

There are four ways to make your offering:

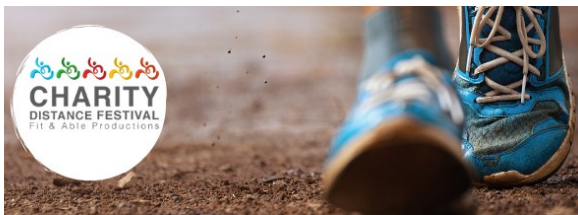

- Place in offering plate as you exit the in-person worship service
- Mail to Resurrection Lutheran Church, 100 Lochmere Drive West, Cary, NC 27518
- Online Giving through our church website at www.rlcary.org/ministries/online-giving
- Download the “GivePlus+” APP, search for Resurrection Lutheran Church, transfer funds from your checking or savings account to RLC.

We are providing Sunday School virtually for children through 8th grade. Everything is on the website at rlcary.org, under Ministries on the Sunday School for Kids webpage.

For children through 4th grade, we are using the Simply Loved curriculum. In this new unit, our Bible point is God guides us...because he loves us. We meet another Bible buddy, Radar, and learn the memory verse, Proverbs 3:5-6.

This week, we talk about how God Gives the Ten Commandments, Exodus 20:1-17.

You can watch the video at home anytime and it will be available for a few weeks for your convenience.

For children, 5th-8th grade, we continue with Connect by Sparkhouse. We are starting a new unit, The Church, and this week's lesson is Pentecost.
