Life is never smooth sailing and the waters of life are filled with waves of doubt and discontent and the storms of fear and trouble. Fear has the power to steal our joy, to distract us from our hope, and to enhance whatever current misery befalls us. We are surrounded by fears --- for economic security, for the well-being of our family, for safety in our violent and contentious world, among others. Today, Jesus comes speaking to us and to our fears. "It is I," He says to us. We remember the flood, God's saving of Noah and his family, and the gift of a rainbow of reminder. This provides a backdrop to Jesus walking on water to rescue Peter from his doubts and fears. So we come today amid the fears of life, our little boats nearly swamped by its storms and our doubts keeping us from walking above the fray. And Jesus comes to us in the midst of it all. "It is I . . . do not be afraid."

Pastor's Corner for Week of July 25-31

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As I thought about the appointed Old Testament reading for this week I couldn't help noticing how different the Bible would be without Noah, without the animals, without the ark...and especially, without the rainbow. For ancient people, floods and tsunamis were a sign of primordial chaos. At a time when the meteorological predictions of supercomputers and the severe weather warnings on our smart phones were unknown, natural calamities would have seemed even more terrifying than they do today! It's no wonder then, that many ancient peoples have depicted the gods as divine warriors with archery weapons in tow. Are the bows and arrows of the gods directed, in the end, at us? Without the Biblical account containing Noah and the ark God commanded him to build, we might always wonder. Without the rainbow after that terrible flood, we might think the chaos of the physical world actually WINS. We might be tempted to think that the positive pathology report or the unwanted biopsy result is God's final and definitive word. But then there's that rainbow. And the rainbow demonstrates that the archer's weapon is unstrung and pointed—not toward earth—but away. There's that rainbow: a sign of God's covenant, God's promise, that the entire natural world was not only something to be created...but cared for. That the giving of life...AND the extending of life...are both gifts from God's hand.

The best news of all, of course, is that the God of the rainbow is also the God of the cross and empty tomb. No matter what you are facing today that might overwhelm and defeat you, take heart that Jesus has turned the biggest defeat of all into victory! This day and every day is a day made new. Christ...is...risen.

Here is a bit of news you'll want to get caught up on:

Helpers Needed for RLC Children & Family Ministry Activities

Many thanks to Jenn Kirby for leading Children's Church last Sunday! If you would like to find out more about joining the team of folks helping with Children's Church, the Church Nursery, or children's Sunday School this fall, I invite you to reach out to MaryAnn Unger (maryann.unger@rlcary.org). There is also a paid position for a Lead Nursery Attendant available for qualified individuals.

RLC Homebound List Expands

I am grateful for those of you who have already alerted us to the needs of our homebound and institution-bound church members. While our congregation's worship live stream will continue for the foreseeable future, our live presentation of Holy Communion services on our church's YouTube channel will likely end after August. As a result, I would like to have as detailed a list as I can possibly get of those who are unable to worship in person due to health limitations. If you or someone you love is worshipping remotely and unable to receive Holy Communion in person, please alert us to that so that we can discuss the possibility of a visit. Also, be aware that once Holy Communion via live stream is discontinued I will see that our small group Holy Communion services are again made available at 12:30 PM in the main sanctuary.

Concordia Seminary Summer Speaker Series in the RLC Family Life Center, August 8-9

Circuit 13 West (LCMS churches in our neighborhood that include Resurrection Lutheran Church) invites you to join us for two evenings in early August to welcome Dr. Abjar Bahkou from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. The event is free, and there is no need to register, since Dr. Bahkou will be on hand from August 9-11 to present at RLC for a clergy seminar, as well. Just come by church on August 8 and 9 at 6:30 PM, and enjoy a presentation on where to start in presenting a Christian witness to Muslim people. For more details, trianglefaith.org.

Don't forget that this is the last weekend to support RLC's "Christmas in July" effort--another way to serve disadvantaged families in our neighborhood.

There might be rain again this week. Jesus is the reason we remember God's promises to Noah. Let's look for the rainbows in the storm--together!

Peace and joy in Christ,
Pastor Jonathan

Celebrate Christmas in July and Help Local Charities!

Christmas trees have been placed outside the Sanctuary and Family Life Center with "ornaments" highlighting specific needs requested by the following organizations:

* Families Together (famielstogethernc.org)

We believe every family deserves a home, and children should never have to wonder where they're going to sleep at night. This is why we connect families to stable homes as quickly as possible - and why we remain connected with them to ensure that they begin the process of bettering their lives.

* Raleigh Rescue Mission (raleighrescue.org)

Through the love of Jesus Christ, Raleigh Rescue Mission transforms lives of men, women, and children experiencing homelessness by ministering to their physical, emotional, and spiritual needs.

* Safe Families for Children (safe-families.org)

SFFC hosts vulnerable children and creates extended family-like supports for families facing a crisis through a community of compassionate volunteers to keep children safe and families together.

Please take an ornament (or two!) and place the unwrapped gifts with the tag attached under the trees by the weekend of July 24-25.

Gift cards can be put in the boxes under the tree or left in the church office.

Thank you for helping us serve people in need in our community!

Congratulations and Welcome to RLC, Pastor Zach!

Congratulations to Karl and Molly Kuekes upon the birth of their son,
Wade Oliver!

He was born on July 21, 2021 in Charlotte, NC.

Proud grandparents are Rajesh and Barbara Patel,
Steve and Rebekah Kuekes, and Dan and Kim Markley.

Our prayers of joy and gratitude are with them as they celebrate this blessing!

and then spend the rest of the time in "creative time".

During the creative time, you will have the opportunity to color a variety of encouragement cards. Some of these cards will be used for our RLC card ministry and some can for your personal use as a way to bless your family and friends.

The cards will be provided and we'll have colored pencils available for coloring. You are welcome to bring your own coloring supplies, if you prefer.

NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

July 13, 2021

Greetings, Resurrection Family,

Some of you associated with our school may already have gotten the word that I have been issued, and accepted, a Call to the Southeastern District LCMS to the role of Facilitator for School, Youth, and Family Ministries. This would allow me to work with the 79 Lutheran School ministries of our District (which stretches from South Carolina to Southern Pennsylvania). This is a big commitment of time and involves considerable travel within this district and would not allow me to continue in my current role as Principal of Resurrection Lutheran School. This is not a role I sought out, but the officers of our District nominated me for this position. After prayerful reflection and consideration, I determined that this new role is what God is calling me to fulfill. And though I am excited to take on this new calling, I am sad to be leaving my position as Principal at RLS in August. I appreciate your prayers for me in this new role for the Lutheran Church.

I will not be leaving RLS in an administrative "lurch" though. Not only have I been working diligently to fill any teaching vacancies, but on contingencies of my leaving. The RLS Board of Directors has approved my proposal to ask Bob Unger to be the Interim Principal for RLS for the upcoming school year.

Bob is a thoroughly trained Lutheran Educator who has experience as an Interim Principal. He served for more than a year in that very role earlier in his career. He is well known and respected in our school community. I believe he would bring the "gravitas" needed to help keep the ship directed over the next transition period. He is already on staff at RLS as a part-time instructor and his duties would simply shift to administrative, rather than instructional. This would not require more time than he already has been spending on duties for RLS and would not require any modifications to his role as Director of Music Ministries at RLC. This would be a one year, interim position and one of the first jobs for the new administration and RLS Board of Directors would be to start a search for the next full-time administrator for the school. I would be assisting in this search in my new role as Facilitator as well.

I thank you for your partnership throughout the years of my administration (14 years...wow) at RLS and look forward to working with Resurrection in my new role for the District. I promise to not be a stranger and will always look at my time at Resurrection Lutheran with great fondness.

God's Richest Blessings,
Tom Kolb

The Coffeehouse at Resurrection will begin again on Friday, August 13 from 7:00-8:30 pm in Family Life Center.

The Coffeehouse is for special needs adults for safe evening of dancing, eating, and visiting.

We need many volunteers to set up, greet, serve food (masked), mingle with guests, and clean up.

The other 2021 dates will be September 10, October 8, and November 12.

Children and Family Ministry

Questions you may have regarding any of these programs or events can be directed to Director of Children and Family Ministry, MaryAnn.Unger@rlcary.org.

We have much to offer at RLC, but we need your help to do so. Great programs happen because great people are willing to share their time, gifts, and talents to serve others. I look forward to partnering with you and supporting you as we work together to share God's love with our youngest members.

Vacation Bible School Fun!

Nursery Needs

The nursery will be reopening the weekend after Labor Day.

In order to provide this service, we need to get a list of dedicated adults who can serve for at least 1 service per month. Again the more people that are willing to serve at least once a month, it makes it easier to commit. If you would be interested in serving multiple times a month that would be greatly appreciated also. The nursery will hopefully be able to be open on Sunday morning from 8:00 am until the end of the 11:00 am service. There will be 3 services each Sunday that need coverage. I will also be looking for Middle School and High School students to serve as assistants.

Time for Sunday School is almost here!

Curriculum and supplies are being ordered, rooms are getting ready, what we need most are willing volunteers - the more we get, the more we can have a list of people that can fill in for each other and work together on planning and preparing for classes. My goal is to have lessons that are easy for teachers to use with minimum preparation. We also want the curriculum to be beneficial for our students at all ages and to provide materials that can be sent home so that parents can continue the "teaching" at home.

I am planning to hold a meeting in mid-August for anyone that is interested in potentially teaching or helping out this upcoming year. Ideally, we will have multiple teachers for each level. I hope you will come and see in person the new curriculum and ask questions. If you have taught Sunday School in the past and want to come to share ideas, I would love to have you join us.

Parents: If you can let me know if you plan to have your child participate in Sunday School this year and their age/grade level, I would appreciate that. It will be helpful in ordering the right amount of materials.

Sunday School is an important process of our children learning about Jesus and His love for them. I look forward to hearing from you and meeting together in August.

Children's Church

Jen Kirby has graciously volunteered to lead a training session for anyone interested in helping and leading Children's Church.

She will meet with interested people on Sunday, August 8 following the 11:00 am service. Light lunch will be provided.

This is a great opportunity for anyone who has thought about becoming involved in our various areas of Children's Ministry. Please RSVP to Jen Kirby through RCB or to the church office (office@rlcary.org, 919-851-7248), so she can plan accordingly.

Student Ministry

Questions you may have regarding any of these programs or events can be directed to Middle School Youth Director, LeAnn.Trautman@rlcary.org or High School Youth Director, Jenny.Piontek@rlcary.org.

Breakaway (9th-12th Grades)

Happy Summer! I hope you all are enjoying the beauty and blessings surrounding you wherever you may be. I had the opportunity last week to attend the National Youth Worker's Convention in Houston, TX which also served as the starting point for our National Youth Gathering 2022! In All Things Christ is present and I am so excited to begin this adventure.

For those of you that don't know, the National Youth Gathering is sponsored by the LCMS every 3 years and allows youth and their leaders to congregate in a city to celebrate their faith, learn and grow in their faith, worship and praise their almighty Creator and be surrounded by youth from all over the world that are a part of Christ's epic story. In July 2022, NYG will be meeting again in Houston. However, the planning, prepping, and building our team begins now.

National Youth Gathering Meetings for Parent and Youth:

Sunday, August 15 at 2:00 pm in Room 240 of the Family Life Center or

Wednesday, August 25 at 7:00 pm in Room 151 of the Family Life Center

If you are planning on attending NYG, you need to be at one of these meetings. Registration deadline for NYG will be September 15th!

CLI Prison Ministries Service Opportunity

You have no doubt seen invitations to serve CLI, an organization based right here in Raleigh, in the past. I'd like to include the following article by RLC member Ann Johnson as another reminder that this worthy organization is making a difference. What follows is especially timely in light of the Seminary Speaker Series event that is coming up. Enjoy!

The Power of the Book

A few weeks ago we celebrated our country's independence founded on the basis of religious freedom. How often do we think of those who do not have that privilege? The following was printed in a recent CLI newsletter and shows how precious is that right to believe and worship as we choose.

Zhirko was born in Iraq and raised by parents who were deeply religious Muslims. After 12th grade he met American Christian missionaries who invited him to church and to Bible studies in their home. He accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior but kept this belief secret because he knew his family would disapprove.

The family found revealing pictures stored on his computer and asked, "How could you convert to Christianity? God will never forgive you. You are possessed by a Christian demon." His uncle slapped and beat him while his parents stood by watching. His cousins took him to their house, beat the bottoms of his feet to hurt the demon so it would leave, and read the Koran out loud to him for several days. He would not back down and fled from family and country to follow God's will for his life.

During the next two years he learned to survive in Central and South America and finally entered the United States in February 2019. For nine months he was held in San Diego at Ofay Mesa Detention Center where he first learned of CLI in a book with a stamp inside that challenged him to write and enroll in their Bible studies. He experienced the Lord's presence often while working through each lesson. In October 2019 he was released and granted religious asylum to stay in the United States. Zhirko writes, "CLI, I encourage you to keep on doing the will of our Heavenly Father, and one day you will hear Him say, 'Well done!'"

You can place donations of Christian books and Bibles in the container by the coat rack and the mailboxes. There is something else you can do that may have a greater impact: YOU CAN BECOME A CLI BIBLE STUDY MINISTER. You can do this entirely in your own home. You review the lesson an inmate has worked on and returned to CLI, which then is sent to you for comments and encouraging remarks. You send the lesson back to the inmate in a stamped, addressed envelope so he or she can benefit from your feedback. CLI provides resources for you to use in reviewing each lesson (there are 35). Bible Study Ministers feel blessed more by what they receive than by what they give. Isn't that awesome?
