Pastor's Corner for October 2-8

God Hears You and Is With You (Habakkuk 1:1-4; 2:1-4)

There are times in life when we ask someone a question, seeking advice that can change a situation, but the answer they give is anything but satisfactory. These past few weeks, I've been on the giving end of poor advice a time or two. Every once in a while, Sophia can be awfully grumpy right before bedtime. We've done everything in the book to get to her to stop crying and she just continues to scream. We've changed her, bathed her, fed her, cuddled her, and burped her yet she is still unhappy. In between the screams and the gasps, as we walk her and rock her around the bedroom, Kesley looks at me and asks questions, "How do we get her to stop?” and the answer to the question is far from satisfactory, “She’s just a baby and babies cry.”

Not the answer she was looking for.

Whether we like it or not, God can be on the giving end of those far-from-satisfactory answers at times. Habakkuk, one of those prophets we generally don’t spend much time with, was asking God a question and he had been asking for a long time. “O Lord, how long shall I cry for help and you will not hear?” (Hab. 1:2). Habakkuk was frustrated with the way his country was headed. What was once a strong God-fearing country, was now a country that was falling apart. Judah was constantly turning their back on God, seeking after other means to satisfy their desires. There was conflict within their own borders over which direction their country should go. Morals were lacking and truth was up to anyone to define.

Sound familiar? There are times when we can call out to God with a simple question. Whether we are frustrated with our country, our family, or the world at large we can cry out to God with Habakkuk, “O Lord, how long shall I cry for help and you will not hear?” But God does hear our prayers and they will be answered.

God’s response to Habakkuk is the same response He gives us today, “For still God’s Word awaits its appointed time; it hastens to the end—it will not lie. If it seems slow, wait for it; it will surely come; it will not delay” (Hab. 2:3).

God says to wait, and He will come. God doesn’t forget His people and you are those that He knows. His presence is still at work and His love is still active. So, whether your week is chaotic or peaceful, remember that God hears you and is with you.

Your brother in Christ,
Pastor Zach Sarrault

Celebrate with Lutheran Women in Mission

Let's celebrate all that God has done through the Lutheran Women's Missionary League (LWML). The power of God is evident in the dimes, quarters, and dollars you put in your Mite Box, and we thank you! Our new LWML Mission Statement reads, "As Lutheran Women in Mission, we joyfully proclaim Christ, support missions, and equip women to honor God by serving others." The Holy Spirit has been doing this for 80 years through the LWML.

This year's theme is "For Us and With Us," based on Romans 8:31-39 – What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? (Romans 8:31-32). We glorify God by sharing His love with others. Your generous mite offering donations enable us so we can share the Gospel throughout the world. Join us on this LWML Sunday to give thanks and praise to God. Thank you for supporting the LWML!

For Us and With Us

Romans 8:31-39

Sunday Morning Adult Christian Ed

First and Second Timothy are two of the most beloved and controversial of Paul's letters, giving us a great opportunity to grow in our faith through a discussion-based study of these two letters. How to pray for our leaders, identifying bad doctrine, what to wear in church, who should serve in church, the love of Christ, baptism, the Word, and even the end times it's all here in Paul's letters to a beginning pastor! Among all of this, it was Paul's desire to instruct and encourage young Timothy to be grounded in the Gospel, setting a good example for all believers in his Gospel ministry.

Join us on Sunday mornings from 9:30-10:30 am in the Fellowship Hall as we walk with Paul and Timothy in the life saving, life-transforming, Gospel ministry of Jesus! This class will be team led by Pastors Jonathan and Zach.

David (of the Old Testament) and the Psalms are forever linked. In this 10-week class (started September 18), we will explore the life of David, whether boy or King, as well as the Psalms. Scholars are divided about how many of the Psalms David wrote but he wrote at least 46 of them - sometimes laments or of praise.

David -Shepherd, Warrior, King, Husband, and Father- he certainly had many roles in his life. The Psalms - written over a span of many years, speak of his personal triumphs and sometimes tragedies, are intricately linked with his life, his triumphs and tragedies. We'll explore the life of David, as well as reading some wonderful psalms and how they applied to the writer as well as to our lives today.

Bring a Bible with an Old Testament to class. There is no cost and no book to buy. We meet in Room 151, Family Life Center, on Sundays from 9:30-10:30 am. Led by Mindy Stephani.

Other Adult Bible Study Opportunities:

- Men's Weekly Study and Fellowship
Mondays, 7:00-8:15 pm in Room 240, Family Life Center
Current study is The End Times and led by Mark Otten.
- Monday Night Women's Bible Study
Mondays, 7:00-8:00 pm in Room 151, Family Life Center
Eight-Week Study of Promised Rest by Michelle Diercks started September

12. Zoom option available.

- Tuesday Morning Bible Study and Fellowship

Tuesdays, 10:30-11:30 am in Room 151, Family Life Center

We will study the lessons for the following Sunday, and as we do, we expect that this Word will enrich and edify our community prayer, faith, and servant life in Christ.

- Men with Kids

Wednesdays, 6:30-7:30 pm in Room 247, Family Life Center

Current study is Be a Godly Man.

- The Thread

Wednesdays, 6:30-7:30 pm in the Fellowship Hall note room change*

The Holy Scriptures are rich and varied in content. Not only do we have two testaments (both Old and New), but the people God used to bring us the Word used poems, songs, historical narrative, letters, and parables to do so. What is the one common thread that holds this rich tapestry together? We will look at various Old and New Testament passages where the most prominent themes of the Scriptures as a whole are in evidence. Led by Pastor Jonathan.

Blessing of the Quilts and Silent Auction

The weekend of October 8-9 at all of our worship services, we will be celebrating the Blessing of the Quilts. Come see the hand-tied quilts The Piecemakers, RLC's quilting group, put together this year. The quilts will be blessed, then shipped to Lutheran World Relief (LWR). Quilts are valuable tools in LWR's relief work to end poverty, injustice, and human suffering. To recipients, they are a symbol of God's love and compassion. Quilts can be used as warm bedding, room dividers, simple tents, or floor coverings. LWR distributed its first quilts in 1945 to families in war-torn Europe following the Second World War. Today, an average of 300,000 quilts are lovingly given worldwide each year.

Also, that weekend is the Silent Auction Fundraiser for The Piecemakers to buy the needed materials to continue making quilts for Lutheran World Relief and Sleep in Heavenly Peace. There will be a variety of quality, hand-made quilt products that are perfect for gift giving in the upcoming season, think birthdays, baby showers, and Christmas!

You are invited to view them and enter your bid on the items on display in the Narthex and Family Life Center before or after all services on October 8-9. After, the bid sheets will be picked up and winners contacted for delivery and payment. Each item will have a bid sheet identifying the suggested market value and the minimum bid.

Wednesday Night Fellowship Dinner

Join us on Wednesday, October 12 from 5:45-6:15 pm

Men's Workout Group

Are you looking to start or shake up your fitness routine, but need some extra motivation, group accountability, or a workout that's actually fun? Or perhaps you'd like to enjoy the wonderful Fall weather but spend more time than you'd like at the office or home office. You may have recently read in the New York Times or other news outlets about F3, a faith-based, free men's workout group held outdoors all around the country. Did you know that there are many active sites every day of the week throughout Wake County, including one just across the street from RLC at Ritter Park? The group is open to men of all fitness levels and ages (typical age range 35-55, but we also have guys in their 20s and 60s), and has different types of workouts for running, strength training, power walking, yoga, and more. If you'd like to learn more or try out one of the workouts, feel free to contact RLC member Art Berger, who is actively involved in the group. (Note that F3 is not sponsored by RLC, or any particular church.)

Student Ministry

I hope you are enjoying this beautiful fall weather! This year the goal is to try new things. I am so excited that we had so many youth and family join us mid-September for our official youth group kick off. Our first Wednesday pizza night was a great success and Warehouse Wednesdays has been very busy. However, I am most excited about Sunday School! It shouldn't come as a surprise that Sunday School took a huge hit during Covid. Adjustments and new things are being tried. The combination of Middle School and High School together, new teachers, new curriculum, and an awesome attitude, we now have a real class. A class that makes it easy to have conversation, games, interactions, and just be inspired by the Word. Seriously AWESOME! Haven't checked it out yet? We are in The Warehouse every Sunday morning at 9:30 am! God is doing exciting things here within the RLC youth!

Bed Available

We have a like new, Twin XL adjustable bed that we would like to donate to someone who can use it. The head and foot both raise and lower independently via a plug-in motor attached to the underside of the bed. The entire bed height DOES NOT elevate like a hospital bed. It also has a vibrate feature. The box spring mattress is attached to the frame for full support and adjustability. The top XL twin mattress has been in a waterproof, bedbug proof encaser the entire time we have owned the bed (except to take the pictures). We used the bed in a spare bedroom and it was rarely used so we're getting rid of it and hoping to make better use of the space. The headboard is removable so it could be replaced with a headboard to fit any décor. This bed is great for inclined sleeping, surgery recovery, for someone who needs help to sit up or get into bed, etc.

Here's a link to the pictures of the bed so that you can see what it does/doesn't do. Thanks for helping us find a good home for this bed so that it can avoid the dump. For questions or other donation suggestions, please contact Susan Harrell or the church office (office@rlcary.org, 919-851-7248).
