

Eighteenth Sunday After Pentecost

October 9, 2022

Pastor's Corner for October 9-15

"Lord, Have Mercy"
(Luke 17:11-19; 2 Timothy 2:1-13)

You and I might not know what it's like to be a leper. But I imagine we've all had an inkling of what it means to come to the end of our own self-help "rope" and say, "Jesus... have mercy!" That's what the ten men in our Gospel reading for this weekend did. As I watched the news reports about the impact of Hurricane Ian in southwest Florida recently and saw interviews with people who had lost (in their words) "everything," all I could think of at first were the first words on record of these ten men in our Gospel reading: "Jesus... Lord... have mercy!"

Thank God we have One who hears our prayers and though He may not always rescue us out of our circumstances as we would like, He is gracious and merciful beyond our wildest imagining! As Jesus saw the lepers in the Gospel accounts and had compassion on them, as He knew they needed love and healing, as He talked with them, healed them, and got closer to them than anyone else would... He knows our needs today and redeems our hearts, souls, and –yes, either now or in the world to come– our bodies, too.

Gratitude comes as the result of God's saving work for us and in us. Jesus heals the men of our text today not because of their gratitude but because of His mercy. Jesus acted first. Gratitude came later.

I've told the story before about an Okinawan Christian that Juli and I knew, whose name was Hidechika Komatsu. Mr. Komatsu was the organist at our church in Okinawa. He had been a child on a small island in the northern part of the Okinawan archipelago during the latter part of World War 2, an island that had to be evacuated as the war drew near. Once upon a time I asked Mr. Komatsu how he had come to faith. He told me he would never forget as the residents of a leper colony on his island were evacuated by Roman Catholic nuns, how the sisters embraced these "untouchable" people. "As boys, me and my friends would throw stones over the wall to their compound," he explained. "These women hugged them as they put them on the boat. That was my first introduction to how the Christian faith was different." As the war ended and the Okinawan people cried out to God for mercy in the face of so much loss, Mr. Komatsu found a message of mercy that put into words the visual he had experienced years before: the Japanese-language Lutheran Hour radio broadcasts. After all that was lost in the war, after many a prayer for the mercy of God, he came to know, and be grateful, that God's mercy was for him, too.

In the hurricanes, earthquakes, and other disasters of life, Jesus gives us all we need to persevere. This week let's hold on together to the eternal hope we have been given: even when we falter, Jesus remains faithful (2 Tim 2:13)!

Relief for Victims of Hurricane Ian

The Florida-Georgia District of the LCMS is currently accepting gift cards for victims of Hurricane Ian in Southwest Florida. If you would like to donate, we invite you to purchase a gift card from Target, Walmart, Lowes, or Home Depot and submit it in the offering plates through a special offering envelope available at the church entrances this weekend. These cards will then be sent directly to the Florida-District office so that local congregations can use the donations where they are needed most. You may also make a direct financial donation by clicking this link. All monies donated will go toward clean up efforts such as fencing, roof repairs, tree removals, water damage, and necessary supplies.

Lutherans for Life Team Visit October 15-16

So much of what we already do at RLC encompasses the positive encouragement of Martin Luther in his explanation to the 5th Commandment, "Thou shalt not kill": "We should fear and love God so that we do not hurt or harm our neighbor in his body but help and support him in every physical need." From our church's support of families experiencing crisis pregnancies through Gateway Women's Center to our donations and volunteering at local social agencies like Western Wake Crisis Ministry to our regular contributions to international organizations like Lutheran World Relief, this is our church's bailiwick! If you would like to find out more about organizing an LFL Life Team at RLC so that we can be a Gospel-motivated voice for life in our community, I invite you to sign up for the Saturday-morning presentation on the 15th. In addition to the sign-ups in the church narthex, you may also reach out to me via email, here, too. Hope to see you there!

Peace and joy in Him,
Pastor Jonathan

Prayers of the Church

We will be collecting Mites for Missions at all services, October 8 and 9.

Please place your gifts in the large purple Mite Box in the Narthex near Sanctuary Worship.

Gifts can also be made by check, payable to RLC,
and mailed directly to Donna Krupcale,
% Resurrection Lutheran Church, 100 W. Lochmere Dr.,

We are combining two of our most popular events into one: Men's Breakfast and Pastor's Forum on Saturday, October 8 at 8:00 am in the Fellowship Hall. We will have a full breakfast, fellowship, and a relaxed conversation with the Pastors. Please use this event to invite your friend, neighbor, or church member you haven't seen lately. Contact Tom Gebbia at mens-ministry@rlcary.org with any questions.

Blessing of the Quilts and Silent Auction

This weekend, October 8-9 at all of our worship services, we will be celebrating the Blessing of the Quilts. Come see the hand-tied quilts The Piecemakers, RLC's quilting group, put together this year. The quilts will be blessed, then shipped to Lutheran World Relief (LWR). Quilts are valuable tools in LWR's relief work to end poverty, injustice, and human suffering. To recipients, they are a symbol of God's love and compassion. Quilts can be used as warm bedding, room dividers, simple tents, or floor coverings. LWR distributed its first quilts in 1945 to families in war-torn Europe following the Second World War. Today, an average of 300,000 quilts are lovingly given worldwide each year.

Also, this weekend is the Silent Auction Fundraiser for The Piecemakers to buy the needed materials to continue making quilts for Lutheran World Relief and Sleep in Heavenly Peace. There will be a variety of quality, hand-made quilt products that are perfect for gift giving in the upcoming season, think birthdays, baby showers, and Christmas!

You are invited to view them and enter your bid on the items on display in the Narthex and Family Life Center before or after all services on October 8-9. After, the bid sheets will be picked up and winners contacted for delivery and payment. Each item will have a bid sheet identifying the suggested market value and the minimum bid.

Christmas Music Festival

What Sweeter Music, accompanied by an orchestra and including the singing of familiar carols, including Silent Night, Angels We Have Heard on High, Hark! the Herald Angels Sing, Joy to the World, O Come All Ye Faithful, special music, and narrative from Holy Scripture will be presented at the 8:00 am and 9:30 am Worship Services on Sunday, December 18.

All youth and adults are encouraged to participate in this exciting preparation for Christmas. Rehearsals for What Sweeter Music are scheduled for Wednesdays from 7:30-8:00 pm. A choral “dress” rehearsal is scheduled for Saturday, December 17, 10:00 am.

If you are interested in participating, please contact Bob Unger at the church office (robert.unger@rlcary.org, 919-851-7248 ext. 25) and/or be present at one the initial rehearsals. It is okay if you are not able to attend all the rehearsals, we would rather you attend as your schedule allows, than to exclude yourself from participating in this wonderful opportunity.

The Coffeehouse for Special Needs Adults

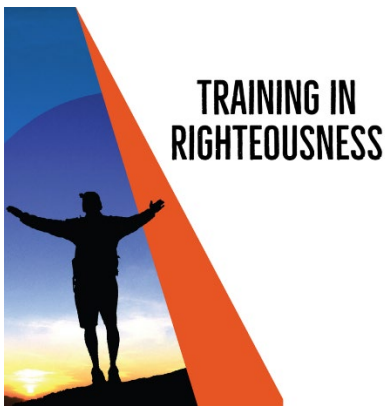

We thank all our volunteers who helped us to have a wonderful Coffeehouse on September 9! There were 116 in attendance. We couldn't do it without our faithful volunteers. Please come be a volunteer! We need setter uppers at 5:00 pm (both food and room), servers at 6:30 pm, and cleaner uppers at 8:30 pm.

The next Coffeehouse is Friday, October 14 in the Family Life Center gym. Our very own Reign! band will play for us. Questions: Brenda Peterson

Sunday Morning Adult Christian Ed

First and Second Timothy are two of the most beloved and controversial of Paul's letters, giving us a great opportunity to grow in our faith through a discussion-based study of these two letters. How to pray for our leaders, identifying bad doctrine, what to wear in church, who should serve in church, the love of Christ, baptism, the Word, and even the end times it's all here in Paul's letters to a beginning pastor! Among all of this, it was Paul's desire to instruct and encourage young Timothy to be grounded in the Gospel, setting a good example for all believers in his Gospel ministry.

Join us on Sunday mornings from 9:30-10:30 am in the Fellowship Hall as we walk with Paul and Timothy in the life saving, life-transforming, Gospel ministry of Jesus! This class will be team led by Pastors Jonathan and Zach.

David (of the Old Testament) and the Psalms are forever linked. In this 10-week class (started September 18), we will explore the life of David, whether boy or King, as well as the Psalms. Scholars are divided about how many of the Psalms David wrote but he wrote at least 46 of them - sometimes laments or of praise.

David -Shepherd, Warrior, King, Husband, and Father- he certainly had many roles in his life. The Psalms - written over a span of many years, speak of his personal triumphs and sometimes tragedies, are intricately linked with his life, his triumphs and tragedies. We'll explore the life of David, as well as reading some wonderful psalms and how they applied to the writer as well as to our lives today.

Bring a Bible with an Old Testament to class. There is no cost and no book to buy. We meet in Room 151, Family Life Center, on Sundays from 9:30-10:30 am. Led by Mindy Stephani.

Weekly Adult Bible Study Opportunities:

- Men's Weekly Study and Fellowship
Mondays, 7:00-8:15 pm in Room 240, Family Life Center
Current study is The End Times and led by Mark Otten.
- Monday Night Women's Bible Study
Mondays, 7:00-8:00 pm in Room 151, Family Life Center
Eight-Week Study of Promised Rest by Michelle Diercks started September

12. Zoom option available.

- Tuesday Morning Bible Study and Fellowship

Tuesdays, 10:30-11:30 am in the Fellowship Hall

We will study the lessons for the following Sunday, and as we do, we expect that this Word will enrich and edify our community prayer, faith, and servant life in Christ.

- Men with Kids

Wednesdays, 6:30-7:30 pm in Room 247, Family Life Center

Current study is Be a Godly Man.

- The Thread

Wednesdays, 6:30-7:30 pm in the Fellowship Hall

The Holy Scriptures are rich and varied in content. Not only do we have two testaments (both Old and New), but the people God used to bring us the Word used poems, songs, historical narrative, letters, and parables to do so. What is the one common thread that holds this rich tapestry together? We will look at various Old and New Testament passages where the most prominent themes of the Scriptures as a whole are in evidence. Led by Pastor Jonathan.

Lutherans For Life

Save the Date!

Saturday, October 15 from 8:30 am-Noon

The mission of Lutherans For Life is to equip Christians to be Gospel-motivated voices for Life. A Life Team is one way churches participate in this mission. Resurrection Lutheran Church is exploring this idea and we want you to come explore with us.

As you leave the Services this weekend, you will find a table with brochures explaining Lutherans for Life. At the same table, you will also find a sign-up sheet for attending the presentation on the 15th. Please register, so that we will know how many tables to set up and how much food to prepare. Registration and the event are free. A light breakfast will be available from 8:30 am to 9:00 am and it will be followed by the presentations.

You are cordially invited to attend a rescheduled celebration in honor of Pastor Jonathan A. Blanke, as he reaches the 30th Anniversary of his ordination in the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

Setting will be casual, with hors d'oeuvres and cake,
including some of Pastor Jonathan's favorites.

Saturday, October 22, 2022

6:00 pm - Worship and Special Recognition in the Sanctuary

7:00 pm - Hors d'oeuvres and Cake in the Family Life Center

Please mark your calendars so you won't miss this momentous occasion!

For planning purposes, please RSVP by October 16 to Brenda Peterson.

Then, the celebration continues on Sunday, October 23 with a cookie fellowship following every Sunday morning service!

Lutheran Witness Subscription

It is time to renew (or start) your Lutheran Witness subscription. This church magazine has timely, informative articles about the faith life of fellow Missouri Synod Lutherans.

The cost is $12.95 annually. Make checks payable to RLC and either use designated offering envelope or note "Lutheran Witness" in memo.

Deadline is October 24. New members to RLC receive a one-year free subscription from the church.

Food & Fellowship for the Blind

Resurrection's Ministry for the Visually Impaired meets

Friday, October 28 from 5:30-7:30 pm
in the Fellowship Hall

Contact Annette Langefeld-Kennedy to learn more and for volunteer needs or the church office (919-851-7248, office@rlcary.org).

Sleep in Heavenly Peace

First priority is providing beds for children who are sleeping in compromised situations. That may mean on the floor, on a pile of blankets, or on a couch. A volunteer crew delivered to a family of 3 little girls that had all been sleeping on the same (broken) twin size bed. That same night a bed was delivered to a 17-year-old that had never had a bed of his own.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace provides the bed, mattress, and bedding to each child. Bedlessness is a real problem in the US with 2-3% of the population sleeping without beds. Two questions are asked of the applicants: is the child over 3 and under 18 years, and do they currently not have a bed. Volunteer builds sponsored by local churches, businesses, and individuals have built and delivered more than 60,000 beds in the US.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace provides all the tools and expertise that allow people with little or no experience to build all the components for a solid, wood bunk bed. It is always a fun-filled half day that ends with branding the beds. The fellowship is wonderful and the ability to solve a problem for others leaves everyone feeling a bit better about the world!

RLC will be sponsoring a Sleep in Heavenly Peace Build Day on Saturday, November 5 from 9:00 am-1:00 pm in the church parking lot. Mark your calendars! We will need 50 volunteers for the build.

Results! Life For Uganda Reverse Raffle

Thanks to all who purchased a Reverse Raffle Ticket to support the work and mission of Life For Uganda. The event was a huge success!

The 25th, 50th, and 75th tickets drawn received small cash prizes and the 100th ticket drawn was the grand prize winner! All winners have been notified and you can see the results and in what order your own ticket came up posted on the LFU bulletin board in the Fellowship Hall.

The grand prize winner has donated his winnings back to LFU, so we've raised almost $10,000! This will make a significant impact in our efforts to build wells, build schools, and build lives in Uganda. We sincerely thank you for your contribution and we promise to keep you up to date on how you're helping to change lives.

Men's Workout Group

Are you looking to start or shake up your fitness routine, but need some extra motivation, group accountability, or a workout that's actually fun? Or perhaps you'd like to enjoy the wonderful Fall weather but spend more time than you'd like at the office or home office. You may have recently read in the New York Times or other news outlets about F3, a faith-based, free men's workout group held outdoors all around the country. Did you know that there are many active sites every day of the week throughout Wake County, including one just across the street from RLC at Ritter Park? The group is open to men of all fitness levels and ages (typical age range 35-55, but we also have guys in their 20s and 60s), and has different types of workouts for running, strength training, power walking, yoga, and more. If you'd like to learn more or try out one of the workouts, feel free to contact RLC member Art Berger, who is actively involved in the group. (Note that F3 is not sponsored by RLC, or any particular church.)

If you are willing to donate treats, or even better decorate a trunk or bring a game, please contact Jenny Piontek at jenny.piontek@rlcary.org or Pastor Zach at zach.sarrault@rlcary.org.

The flyer features a crumpled paper background. At the top left is a pumpkin, and at the top right is a cartoon illustration of Jesus with a group of children. A banner of colorful pennants hangs across the top. The main title 'Children's Ministry' is written in a large, brown, cursive font, with 'October 2022' in a smaller, black, sans-serif font below it. The central section is titled 'Children's Sunday School' in red, bold font, followed by a paragraph of text in black. Below this is a registration link. The bottom left section is titled 'Hands-On Bible Gift for 2nd and 3rd Graders' in red, bold font, with a paragraph of text below. The bottom right section is titled 'Children's Church' in red, bold font, with two paragraphs of text below. A small illustration of children reading a Bible is on the left side of the bottom sections.

Resurrection Lutheran Preschool

Firefighters' Visit

RLP invites area firefighters in October to speak with our children about fire safety. They come to our classrooms wearing their uniforms and dress in their equipment in front of us. The children are able to see the firetruck, hoses, and ladders up close. The following week, we all practice our first fire drill. Safety is very important at RLP!

Preschool Punchlines:

A teacher asked a 4-year-old boy, "Do you like to sing?"

Boy: "Yes, I like learning Johnny Cash songs. He plays the guitar. "

Our program offers opportunities and experiences that will enrich, expand, and develop a child's ever-increasing accumulation of knowledge in a loving Christian atmosphere. We have classes for children, 2-5 years, including Transitional Kindergarten. Join our family today!

Email office@rlpcary.org or call 919-851-7270 to enroll or schedule an individual tour.
