God's people are cared for by the Good Shepherd Himself, Who laid down His Life for the sheep. He now guides us through His Word and Sacraments. He anoints us with His Spirit so that we may pass through trouble-filled life safely; and at last come to the House of the Lord, where we will dwell in peace forever. We listen to the Shepherd's Voice; so that He might keep us on paths of righteousness for His Name's Sake. We have a calling to proclaim this Good Shepherd to those around us so that they may know His Love, Care, Mercy, and Peace.

Adult Christian Education Classes Sundays, 9:15-10:15 am

On Sunday, May 12, we will offer two one-session classes. Descriptions are listed below. This will be our last class until the summertime adult education program starts on June 2.

Class with Vicar Alan Shaw in the Fellowship Hall:

The Why Statements of RLC. British-American author Simon Sinek writes that many organizations know "what" they do and "how" they do it but only the most successful know "WHY" they do what they do. The Council has been working on focusing RLC's vision and mission statements into simple "WHY" statement while understanding that everyone's "WHY" might be different. Come and learn the Biblical foundation behind the RLC "WHY" and discuss (or discover) what your RLC "WHY" statement is. You will be able to use a WHY statement to apply it to your service to others and the church.

Looking for a practical way you can be a blessing to others?

Not sure how to go about doing that or think it's too difficult to share God's love with others? We'll go through a practical way you can easily remember will help create connection and relationship with others. You're likely doing some or all of what we'll discuss already. Let's piece it all together and learn how to "BLESS." (BLESS stands for "Bond," "Learn," "Engage," "Serve," "Share").

Another part will focus on the SED iNeighborhood initiative and how we can engage and BLESS others (building on Maxwell's "connection" series) to share Christ. All materials will be provided. This has not been offered before at RLC.

The Letters of 2 and 3 John with Kathy Rihani in Room 240:

As we study the letters of John, we will pray for the peace and blessing of our congregation and fellowship. We will be greeting fellow Christians as beloved brothers and sisters, for whom Christ gave His life. Although John provides strong warnings against false teachers and their doctrines, he has also helped us understand the true character of Christian love, faith, and good works. These are lessons RLC needs to remind ourselves of during our time of transition. Come join us as we study these one-chapter brief books that are, nevertheless, packed with important lessons for us all. All materials will be provided. Bring your Bible. This has not been offered before at RLC. Description inspired by The Lutheran Study Bible, opening remarks for the Epistles of John, written by the contributors.

— for whoever touches you touches the apple of his eye —
Zechariah 2:8b

Throughout this transition, Lord, remind us again of who we are to You – the apple of Your eye, Your beloved children. Our value lies in who we are – sons and daughters of the Most High King. We are priceless in Your eyes! May all that we do in Your holy name reflect and glorify You by the power of the Holy Spirit moving in, among and through us. May others see that reflection and be moved to ask the source of our hope. Ready us in our immediate and joy-filled response: Jesus! In His name we pray, Amen.

Call Committee Update

- The Call Committee has held video calls with the 8 candidates, and calls are scheduled with an additional 3 candidates through late May. The Call Committee will complete all video calls before identifying candidates for in-person visits.
- Information about the candidates (bios and links to their current church websites, if available) will be provided to the congregation before in-person visits.
- It is anticipated that in-person visits will take place in early June for those candidates that are being considered for the position. Depending on how many candidates are interviewed and how quickly they can be scheduled, a congregational Call Service may take place in June. More information about the schedule will continue to be provided as it is available.

Call committee: Don Martin and Teresa Gresham (co-chairs), Nick Cassimatis, Bob Hirt, Sara Kirkendall, Ralph Klevenow, Carmen Madler, Leah Robison, and Gary Roth. For questions or input during this process, contact either Don (919-460-6458, dandkmartin@bellsouth.net) or Teresa (919-274-5450, teamgresham@bellsouth.net).

Hurricane Florence Recovery

Eastern North Carolina felt the devastating effects of Hurricane Florence last fall. The areas hardest hit by the high winds and the flooding are still in need of volunteers to help repair and rebuild the damaged homes.

Many families are living in temporary trailers. Some are in apartments or renting homes while continuing to make mortgage payments on a house in which they can no longer live. They are patient, sometimes weary, often teary, and are working to not lose heart. There are still people waiting for compassionate, helping hands to bring a word of hope – a word of Easter.

It doesn't matter whether you're skilled with power tools or have never even picked up a hammer — your willing hands and caring heart are needed to help families return to their homes.

Seeking Volunteers For Four Dates

You could be one of those people who comes for a couple of days or a week to make a difference in the lives of another...

- > Wanda has a local farm and is hoping that we will help replace her flooring.
- > The Johnsons need help with dry wall installation, cabinets, and trim work.
- > A military family who served as essential personnel during and after the storm.

Opportunities to Help

The Southeastern District has identified four 1-week periods where we will sponsor teams of up to twenty volunteers each for very specific work projects. If you are interested in coming for a few days or an entire week, we have something very special that you can do.

Jacksonville NC: May 13-18 and May 20-25

We have identified 10 projects near Calvary Lutheran Church in Jacksonville where help is needed to make it possible for several people to return to their homes: wallboard, mudding, painting, trim work, and installing appliances are examples. Joel and Kathy Mathews from Mercy in Action will be the on-site supervisors. Volunteers will be housed in a hotel (two in a room). Arrangements have been made for 10 hotel rooms for each week. Volunteers are responsible for their own meals. Register HERE

New Bern NC: June 2-8 and June 16-22

Our work in the New Bern area will help restore homes for two families and assist with several other projects. Participants will be staying at New Hope Village (Neuse Forest Presbyterian Church). There is a $125 fee for housing and meals (minus one evening). All tools and materials will be at the work site and ready for you. We are working with the Fuller Rebuilders in this project. DCE Ryan Radke will be on site June 2-8 and Rev. Donald Schaefer will be there during June 16-22. Register HERE

It is important that you identify the group name as The Southeastern District, LCMS.

Thank You!

Grants from LCMS Disaster Response and North Carolina Hurricane Florence Disaster Relief Fund are helping fund this work. Most importantly, the gifts you provided in response to the great need is continuing to provide resources to help families return to their homes.

Thank you and for your willingness to keep these displaced families both here and in every area of disaster in prayer.
