A warm welcome to all worshipping with Resurrection Lutheran Church today. This month Resurrection will be celebrating forty two years of ministry. Celebrating our Savior's love continues today in the faithful gathering of God's people, whether we are together in God's house or as you watch online from the comfort of your home.

The Lessons and Liturgy Today

God's people are cared for by the Good Shepherd Himself, Who laid down His Life for the sheep. He now guides us through His Word and Sacraments. He anoints us with His Spirit so that we may pass through this trouble-filled life safely; and at last come to the House of the Lord, where we will dwell in peace forever. We listen to the Shepherd's Voice; so that He might keep us on paths of righteousness for His Name's Sake. We have a calling to proclaim this Good Shepherd to those around us so that they may know His Love, Care, Mercy, and Peace.

The Lord is my Shepherd, I have everything I need.
He lets me rest in green pastures,
He leads me to quiet streams.
My strength He refreshes, bringing honor to his Name.

Though I walk through the valley,
with Him I am not afraid.

Refrain

The light of Your Glory goes before me on my way.
You honor me with Your Goodness,
Your Love will keep me safe.
My cup brims with blessings
from the kindness that You give.

I'm secure in Your Presence as long as I live!

Better Is One Day - Matt Redman

1. How lovely is Your Dwelling Place, O LORD Almighty, for my soul longs and even faints for You;
For here my heart is satisfied within Your Presence;
I sing beneath the shadow of Your Wings:

Refrain

Better is one day in Your Courts;
better is one day in Your House;
better is one day in Your Courts
than thousands elsewhere! (repeat)

to find You in the place Your Glory dwells

CONFESSION OF SINS AND GOOD NEWS OF FORGIVENESS

P Before God and one another, we confess our sins, seeking God's Grace and Forgiveness. Father in Heaven,

C We have struggled with our own arrogance.

We have elevated our own thoughts above Your Thoughts. We have chosen our ways over Your Ways. We have done useless things. We have offended Christ, our Shepherd and Messiah.

P Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd of the Sheep, has died and risen again. By raising His Son from the dead, God the Father declares His Son's Sacrifice sufficient atonement for our sin; and, for His Sake, declares us to be innocent and free.

Therefore, as a Called and ordained servant of the Word, I forgive your sins in the Name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P May He Who began this Good Work within you bring it to completion on the Day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

C Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Let us pray.

Almighty God, merciful Father, since You have wakened from death the Shepherd of Your sheep, grant us Your Holy Spirit that when we hear the voice of our Shepherd we may know Him who calls us each by name and follow where He leads; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God now and forever.

C Amen.

HEARING THE WORD OF GOD

FIRST READING

Acts 2:42-47

(The early church devoted themselves to the Apostles' teachings, fellowship, the breaking of bread, prayer and worship.)

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Everyone was filled with awe, and many wonders and miraculous signs were done by the apostles. All the believers were together and had everything in common. Selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone as he had need.

Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

I Peter 2:19-25

(Christ suffered for us; and has given us an example to follow.)

For it is commendable if a man bears up under the pain of unjust suffering because he is conscious of God.

But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God.

To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in His Steps. “He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in His Mouth.”

When they hurled their insults at Him, He did not retaliate; when He suffered, He made no threats.

Instead, He entrusted Himself to Him Who judges justly.

He Himself bore our sins in His Body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by His Wounds you have been healed.

For you were like sheep going astray, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

ALLELUIA VERSE

P Christ is risen from the dead.

C Alleluia! Alleluia!

P God the Father has crowned Him with glory and honor,

C He has given Him dominion over the works of His Hands; He has put all things under His Feet.

P We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over Him.

C Alleluia! Alleluia!

HOLY GOSPEL

John 10:1-10

(Jesus compares Himself to a Shepherd; and to the gate of a sheep pen.)

P The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the tenth chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

“I tell you the truth, the man who does not enter the sheep pen by the gate, but climbs in by some other way, is a thief and a robber.

The man who enters by the gate is the shepherd of his sheep.

The watchman opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice.

He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

When he has brought out all his own, he goes on ahead of them, and his sheep follow him because they know his voice.

But they will never follow a stranger; in fact, they will run away from him because they do not recognize a stranger’s voice.”

Jesus used this figure of speech, but they did not understand what He was telling them.

Therefore Jesus said again,

“I tell you the truth, I Am the Gate for the sheep.

All who ever came before Me were thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them.

I Am the Gate; whoever enters through Me will be saved.

He will come in and go out, and find pasture.

The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.”

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.
C Praise to You, Lord Christ.

RESPONDING TO THE WORD OF GOD

APOSTLES' CREED

C I believe in God, the Father Almighty,
Maker of Heaven and earth.
And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried.
 He descended into hell.
 The third day He rose again from the dead.
 He ascended into Heaven and sits at the Right Hand of God the Father Almighty.
 From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy Christian Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and the Life + everlasting. Amen.

Socially Distant but Spiritually Close in Christ, 3: The Lord Is My Shepherd Easter 4 (1 Pet 2:19–25)

Part 3 of our 5-part series “socially distant but spiritually close in Christ” focuses on Jesus...not politicians or office managers...as our Good Shepherd. Jesus’ rescue from sin and death enables us to work faithfully and honor those in authority over us, even when it’s hard.

- I. Sooner or later we find ourselves on the wrong end of an _____.
 - a. I tell my story, from Kindergarten days. Do you have one? If so, please write or tell a family member about it.
 - b. St. Peter writes about the inevitability of suffering when we strive to do what’s right
- II. The challenges for the _____ in St. Peter’s day and the _____ today look a bit different...
 - a. Though it can seem at times like everyone’s out to get us, self-identifying Christians in the US today are neither a minority nor are they truly “persecuted” as in St. Peter’s day (both Peter and Paul are believed to have been martyred)
 - b. Though human trafficking may be common today, the institution of slavery has been abolished for us; not so for Peter’s readers
- III. But both St. Peter’s first readers and all of us today are given to confess together:
“The _____ is my _____!”
 - a. The reality for workers in this time of Covid-19 crisis often seems unjust
 - b. Workers of every era have had to put up with office politics and unfairness
 - c. Nevertheless, we are given to rest in the good news that the Lord (not any earthly politician!) is our shepherd and is truly in charge!
 - d. Jesus knows in a profound way what it means to suffer true injustice: the consequences for sin that we deserved! Yet He did not retaliate!
 - e. As risen Lord who has defeated death and gives us forgiveness of sins, Jesus “restores [our] souls,” He is with us as we “pass through the valley of the shadow of death.” He leads us to green pastures and still waters (Psalm 23)!
- IV. With Jesus as our true shepherd the Holy Spirit gives us what we need to honor _____
 - a. Luther’s explanation to the 4th Commandment: “We fear and love God so that we do not despise or anger our parents and other authorities but honor them....”

We are like wayward sheep who don’t know which way to go, but through Holy Baptism have been turned around to follow our Good Shepherd. We work faithfully and honor those in authority over us, even when it’s hard.
